LOCAL NEWS

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Friedlander, a son.

The many friends of Mr. Harry Hurwitz will be sorry to hear that he is at home seriously ill.

The Chanukah Charity Ball takes place on Thursday, December 28, at Turner Hall.

Mr. Adolf Westheimer has returned from a two weeks' trip to Chicago, where he went on business and pleasure.

Sam Schlakzug filed a petition in the district court asking that his name be changed to Sam S. Slater, a name that he has been using.

The Chanukah Charity Ball is for the benefit of the Jewish Orphans' Home.

Mrs. Joseph Goldman and son Maurice arrived home last evening from San Antonio, where they have been sojourning since Thanksgiving.

Mr. Sol Schoenman spent a day in Beaumont last week, where he went to size up the situation preparatory to instituting a B'nai Brith lodge there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Ishmael, formerly of Chicago, have taken up their domicile in Houston, where Mr. Ishmael has associated himself with the Schmidt-Brannon Safe Co.

Some people are overburdened by demands of charity, but a majority of our young people are not yet educated up to giving. Start them off right and have them buy a ticket or two or three for the Chanukah Charity Ball.

Owing to ill-health, the Rev. N. Mosessohn, editor of the Jewish Tribune, will spend a part of the winter in San Antonio, Texas, and later will go to Southern California. The Exponent wishes Mr. Mosessohn a speedy recovery.

Invitations are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Corinne Fisher, daughter of Mrs. Florence Fisher of Houston, to Mr. Abe J. Asher, also of Houston. The wedding will take place on Wednesday evening, January 3rd, 1912, at Temple Chajim Schwartz, at Hempstead, Texas.

When a lodge of the B'nai Brith stands behind an affair, you can depend on it that it will be all right, all right.

It is hard to resist the call of the South. Mr. and Mrs. L. Brilling and family, formerly of Peoria, Ill., have returned to Texas. Their two charming daughters will remain in Peoria to participate in the holiday gaieties, but will come early in the new year to be with their parents in their new home at 2129 Browder St., Dallas, Texas.

The date of the benefit minstrel performance to be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of Temple Beth Israel at the Concordia Club has been changed from the 27th to the evening of the 26th, the change being made on account of the Savage production of "The Girl of the Golden West" on the date originally chosen.
